WHIPPING POST FOR IRISH TOM

Judge Swope declares that he would have made him a Decent, Social and Industries Citizen. Banned from the County.

The Irish Tom would have been a decent, social and industries citizen if he had been punished by the whipping post much as was declared by Judge Swope Saturday when he his Irishman cousin, Tom, on the charge of being a tramp.

The prisoner was bailed from the county the Court declared that he was found within the bounds of Adams County after Monday his arrest would be ordered, and he would be placed in jail until November, the Court being instructed to see that Tom should get nothing to eat but ordinary prison fare and should have no exercise but what was absolutely necessary.

When Irish Tom was called Judge Swope asked him his full name.

"Tom Kelly, your honor," answered the prisoner.

"Fifty nine, your honor."

"Just the age of the Court. How long have you been in this country?" asked the Court.

"I was born in Ireland and came to this country 30 years ago. I work and I am a citizen. Not long ago I was working on a railway line near Newville. When I came here I sold a watch and got on a little spree. I was sorry for what occurred. I was very desolate. Sometimes she kept me stronger than she would have I do for drink now."

"What will you do to keep you are liberated?"

"I'll make an effort to keep from drink," said the Irishman smiling.

"I usually work awhile and then get on a spree. Then I work some more."

"Yes, Tom, you know just what you had to get imprisoned without any letting a serious offense," said the Court.

"Yes and some other things among the State's most unhappy residents and I believe the whipping post is the only solution to the problem you present. I suppose you think the best thing I could do for myself would be to order my imprisonment until the blue birds sing again."

"I'll have to leave the day to your honor," was the answer.

"Don't you think the county of Adams has taken care of you enough?" was the next question.

"Yes, your honor."

"The Court will suspend sentence in your case. It will be found in some way to get you out of the county and will impose imprisonment until November first, throughout the old summer time. The county price for a man or no more service than is absolutely necessary."

"Thank you, your honor," answered Tom.

The only other prisoner brought for sentence was John Hagen, who also pleaded guilty to a charge of being a tramp. He was sentenced to one month in the county jail. The man is a gentlemanly looking person and when his fate was contemplated upon by the Court declared that he always tried to conduct himself as a gentleman.

Judge Swope declared that while under the influence of liquor the man had mistreated two boys and frightened a number of young people. The Judge's own boys were also taken to the county jail.

The prisoner said that he had no intention of mending any more and promised to seek employment as soon as released. He gave Frederick county as his home, though he claimed no "hard place of abode."

The prisoner testified that he had never been married.

The sentence imposed was committal in the county prison for a period of five weeks ago at the time of his arrest.
